

Personal Statement

I am co-founder of Geoshepherds, a geo design consultancy based in Sweden. I have spent the past 8 years developing a strong business acumen and vision from my work in managerial positions in Canada, Australia and Scandinavia. More recently, I have focused on developing strong technical skills within the geo-spatial industry for integration with web development and data science. I am driven by challenges, personal development and finding solutions to everyday problems.

Skills

